

What do you miss from Switzerland?
The crusty bread, the cleanliness, the Alps, the language diversity, the smoothness and reliability that govern this tiny country and of course the direct democracy. Being close to nature and spending time outdoors, whether this is in a sporty or meditative manner, has always been of great importance to me and I try to get out of the city as often as possible.

Who is your favourite Swiss artist?
Olaf Breuning (now NY), Meret Oppenheim (now dead), Giacometti (now also dead).

Who is your favourite British artist?
Leigh Bowery (ex Australia), Sir Anish Kapoor (ex India), Bruce McLean (Scotsman).

What is your most British trait? What have you adopted from the British culture?

Being friendly and helpful to strangers.
Complaining a lot without coming up with a solution.

Which is your favourite British cultural institution? Why?
The British Fashion Council sometimes. The V&A at others.

Who is your artistic idol?
Terry Jones, founder of i-D magazine.

Staying or going back?
Staying a little longer before going back. I've been saying this for quite a while now.

www.dashmagazine.net See Less

11

1 Comment 2 Shares

Like Comment Share

Alice Ceresole

this is a great series, fanastic to see the creative side of switzerland being showcased. ...

Like · Reply · 5y

Write a comment...

